THE EXPERT SAYS...

“This season, we’re continuing to celebrate bold color and prints. The craze began last year with denim - now everything is infused with color!”

Stephanie Solomon, Bloomingdale’s Fashion Director

FASHION FACEOFF

Who wore it better?

This cat-face French Connection sweater gets the retro treatment (with pearls and bow-topped kitten heels) on Taylor Swift, while the Nickelodeon star, Victoria Justice gives hers a modern take in gray skinny jeans and stilettos.

Did You Know...?

Peplums are huge this season - but this isn’t the first time they’ve been popular! The chic design detail was also in the 1980s, the early and mid-20th century (when Hollywood icons like Marlene Dietrich and Bette Davis wore it) and even the 1-860s.

THE EXPERT SAYS...

“Spring is one of the top times for vintage shopping- everyone wants to refresh their wardrobes! People also clean out their closets so we have more inventory in store to buy.”

Cameron Silver, founder of Decades boutique in L.A.

FASHION FACEOFF

Who wore it better?

If we owned this Two by Vince Camuto blouse, $79, we’d wear it in these two ways: Isla Fisher tucked into a fitted skirt with nude heels for a dressed-up look and January Jones with cropped jeans and wedge heels for running errands.

Did You Know...?

Mulberry’s “Alexa” bag was inspired by Alexa Chung- and her vintage Mulberry men’s briefcase! The updated women’s style was such a hit that the brand started a wait-list, and 15,000 people signed up just for the bag! Talk about popular!
