

PARANORMAL ACTIVITY

Katie and her boyfriend Micah live in a two-story tract house in suburban San Diego, California. Katie claims that a ghostly presence has haunted her since her youth and believes that it has followed her to their new home. Dr. Fredrichs, a self-professed psychic, assesses that they are being plagued by a demon which feeds off negative energy and is intent on haunting Katie no matter where she goes. Dr. Fredrichs recommends they contact demonologist Dr. Johan Averies, but Micah's reluctance to do so.

Each night, Micah mounts a video camera on a tripod in their bedroom to record any paranormal activity that might occur while they sleep. He manages to capture several phenomena, such as objects moving, lights and televisions switching on and off, and sounds ranging from voices and growls to footsteps and loud thuds. The strange occurrences in the middle of the night soon involve Katie awakening to spend several hours standing by the bed staring at Micah while he sleeps and going outside to sit on the backyard swing, which she doesn't remember at all, the following morning.

Stressed and exhausted, the couple decide to go to a hotel. Micah later finds Katie gripping a cross so tightly that it bloodies her palm. Just as Micah is set to leave, a suddenly calm Katie insists they instead remain at the house. Micah, angry at a situation he cannot control, burns the cross. Later that night, Katie awakens to once again stare for several hours at Micah while he sleeps. She then goes downstairs into the darkness and begins screaming. Micah wakes up and runs after her, while the camera, left on its tripod, records what sounds like a struggle downstairs. The screams suddenly stop, and a brief silence is followed by the sound of heavy footsteps coming up the stairs. Micah's body is violently hurled at the camera, knocking it over. Katie slowly walks into view, her clothing soaked with blood. She crouches like an animal over Micah's body, smiles diabolically at the camera, An ending title card states that Micah's body was discovered a few days later by the police, and Katie's whereabouts remain unknown.
