Mother and Daughter Join Forces and Write Best Selling Vampire Books

Mother and daughter P.C. and Kristen Cast join forces to write books about Vampires. In the wake of the worlds obsession with blood sucking/sexy Vampires, this mother and daughter duo have written 6 best selling books, The House of Night The Series includes Marked, Betrayed, Chosen, Untamed and Hunted.

The two Vampire Authors have been on Wendy Williams show and Rachel Ray show. Info. from Rachel Ray.com:

P.C. Cast, a former English teacher, explains to Rachael how the idea of collaborating with her daughter Kristin emerged as a way to make the writing more appealing to a younger generation. "I started writing by myself," she says, "but my inner '70s teenager started to speak on the page, and they were so not the right words."

So she turned to her 19-year-old daughter for help and the rest is history, because now their fifth book Hunted debuting at number one on the USA TODAY best selling book list!

"Just because a novel is about vampires does not warrant praise it has to be written well. Marked is written very well."

Fantasy is a good escape P.C. says, explaining why she thinks their books have been so successful. "Vampires are sexy and powerful, and who doesn't want to be sexy and powerful right now? And for our young adult audience, they really identify with them because kids think that they're immortal."

P.C. and Kristin's books have been optioned by Hollywood to be made into movies! The mom and daughter talk about their dream cast. "It's hard for me because I fashioned Zoey after Kristin when she was 16," P.C. says about the main role. "But I like Tom Welling, he would be so good as the hero."

House Of Night Series

Kristin adds, "I think Vanessa Hudgens looks a lot like the heroine or our story. She would do a fantastic job at playing our lead character! If I have a vote on the matter, tell them I'm all in favor!"
